

Speed dating for Master Degree (2 years) training and/or PhD proposal

If you are a student (Master Degree) and interested by a 6 months student training in Anses France (<https://www.anses.fr/en>) and/or a PhD with Anses and EFSA (<https://www.efsa.europa.eu/fr>), please contact Virginie Michel or Maryse Guinebretière (organizers of the Symposium) during the symposium.

Topic:

The main objective is to propose innovative rearing systems for broiler chicken that meet optimal conditions to ensure high level of animal health and welfare conducting to avoidance/decrease of antimicrobial usage in food production systems. The project is widely transdisciplinary.

Key words:

Improvement of standard production system, broiler chicken, welfare, health, resistance to diseases, antimicrobial usage.

Applicant skills:

Master Degree

Scientific and/or veterinarian and/or agronomic engineer

Skills in animal behaviour, animal welfare, animal health, animal production

Timing:

Master Degree training: sept 2017-aug 2018

PhD: sept 2018-sept 2021